C D F G

Am/C Am/G
Now that he's gone Now the world has moved on

Am/ F# Am/F Am/E
Since he called my name, Nothings the same

Am/C Am/G
As my sister cried He said, "Lazarus rise."
Am/ F# Am/F Am/E
To love and anoint Or just prove a point

Chorus

C
I'm the one that he saved
D
I'm the one that he raised
F
From a dark quiet sleep
G
And the peace of the grave
I the one who owns much
But that no one will touch
F
Mothers see me and cry
Dogs bare teeth as I walk by

Verse I don't see a veil
Between heaven and hell
The truth is there's nothing
But a warm light and singing
Here in-between
 A voice haunts my dreams
Martha does what she can
But won’t look at my hands

Chorus
Verse I love the cool mornings
I love a hot meal
The pulse of the street
Night jasmine and clean sheets
But I can't sleep or rest
I feel lost and heart pressed
I wander these rooms
Looking for you

Chorus
Chorus aught to be grateful
To drink from the grail
But I don't be belong
On either side of this veil
I look down at my hands
Clasped in my lap
 When he left this world
I thought he’d take me back
