

Bowling Baby

Words and Music By Carrie Newcomer

To play in the same key as the original recording capo the guitar on the 3rd fret and play the chords listed below

E A
Verse Workin' Friday night down at the Alley
E B
We're open late twelve lanes, no wait, you tally
E
She walked right in, said with a grin
A
"I'll take lane 11, and shoe size 10,"
B
"let's set um' up and we'll roll 'em again,
uh huh."

E A
Chorus: She's a fine fine fine bowling baby
E B
She's my my my bowling alley queen
E A
She don't seem to see or even notice me
B E
But she's all the woman a boy like me could need

E A
Verse: She's got a pink bowling ball and oh man can she throw it
E B
It makes my knees get weak just see the way that she holds it
E
When she follows through with that killer hook
She strides on back and don't even look
B A
That's bowling cool and she wrote the book - Uh huh

Chorus

E A

Verse: She drinks diet Coke and she don't ever tease her hair

E I like those black stretch pants and v-neck sweaters she always wears B

E And she never jumps or shouts or screams

A She has an almost perfect swing

B Her roll is hard and usually mean E Uh huh

Chorus

A E
Bridge: Last night I wore my new blue jeans, combed back my hair with water

A B
Trying hard to look cool and cas' just leanin' on the counter

E A
Verse: Both hands in my pockets I watched her take off her bowling gloves

E B
I don't know what this is, but I think it must be love

E A
Maybe some day she'll turn around, smile and put her ball bag down

B B
And say "Hey, buddy let's bowl a round. . .uh huh"

Chorus
