

Gratitudes

Gratitude . . . to Ken Irwin and the Rounders, John Virant, Steve Netsky, Brad Paul and the entire Rounder family. You took a risk with a new artist and gave me the amazing opportunity to grow my true artistic wings. You've traveled with me for thirteen albums. For your continuing belief and support, I will be forever and ever grateful. Blessings on your heads and hearts.

Gratitude . . .to David Weber, Mark Williams, Richard K. Thomas and Robert Meitus for producing these wonderful recordings. Your talent, creativity, humor and willingness to join me this musical journey has meant everything. Shalom.

Gratitude . . . to Hugh Syme who has created so many beautiful images and unique designs. You heard the truest meaning of these songs. What a delight to see them transformed into image. Salaam.

Gratitude . . .to Gary, Keith, Jim, Steve, Winton, Slats, Dan, Chris, Mary, Jeff, Byron, Dane, Michael, Parker, Krista, Mary Chapin and Alison. You are some of finest and most elegant musicians I've known. You are part of the very fabric of these recordings. You didn't just play the song, you made magic. Namaste.

Gratitude . . . to Amjad Ali Khan, Ayaan and Amaan Ali Khan. It has been a deep honor and delight to create songs of the spirit with you. Yes, music is the universal language. Shanti.

Gratitude . . . to Mike and Lorel, Kappy, Ericka, Pamela, Kelly, Jake, McGuire, Jim, Chip, Aaron and Jill. You've been so much support and help in getting these songs into the world. Your gifts are many and so appreciated. Peace.

Gratitude . . . to my beloved, Robert Meitus. You have always believed in the very best of who I am. So much has happened because of you. My love eternal.

Gratitude . . . to Amelia, Faith, Glenda, Melissa, Michelle, Krista, Philip, Scott and Ruth, Tom, Jill, Jenny, Michael, Malcolm, Judy, Parker and Sharon, Kappy, Clay, David, Inge and all my family and friends who have heard all these songs forming in my heart, listened to them with such graciousness as I attached them to emails and played them over the telephone or in your sundry living rooms. Blessings and "Ya-Baby."

Dedicated to . . . my dad, James Newcomer, who taught me that the spiritual journey is a daily adventure, and that if I pay close attention, wonder is ever close at hand.

www.carrienewcomer.com

Copyright and Other Info

All songs ©1991-2012 Carrie Newcomer Music (BMI) Administered by BMG Chrysalis, except
“Two Toasts” ©2008 Parker J. Palmer and Carrie Newcomer (BMI) Administered by BMG
Chrysalis

For Carrie Newcomer’s complete Rounder catalogue visit www.rounder.com
To purchase Everything is Everywhere on Available Light Records, or to learn more about the Interfaith Hunger Initiative visit www.carriewcomer.com

For complete lyrics and more information about the albums in which each song originally appeared visit the official Carrie Newcomer website: www.carriewcomer.com

