Words and Music By Carrie Newcomer

To play in the key of the recording capo on the fifth fret 4/4 time

Intro: Am Am

Verse: Am/ Am / C / C /
Am/ Am/ C / C/
F / F/ C / C
G / G / Am/ Am /

Chorus: F / F / G / G/
F / F/ E/ E /
F / F/ C / C /
G / G/ Am/ Am/ Am / Am

V: Am Am C C
There is a spirit moving cross the water
Am Am C C
There is a spirit rolling 'cross this town
F F C C
There is a voice above the madness
G G Am Am
There is a spirit movin' now

Ch: F F G G
Some day we'll run and we will not stumble
F F E E
Someday we'll fly and we won't look down
F F C C
And all will see and most believe it
G G Am Am Am Am
There is a spirit moving now

V: Be not afraid though the river rise
Be not afraid when the cold winds howl
We are not called to live in terror
There is a spirit moving now

Ch: Some day we'll run and we will not stumble
Someday we'll fly and we won't look down
And all will see and most believe it
There is a spirit moving now

V: The walls are thick and the walls are sturdy
But walls still fall at a trumpet sound
Hand in hand we'll walk together
There is a spirit movin' now

Ch: Some day we'll run and we will not stumble

Someday we'll fly and we won't look down
And all will see and most believe it
There is a spirit moving now

There is a spirit and it's moving now
There is a spirit and it's moving now
There is a spirit and it's moving now
